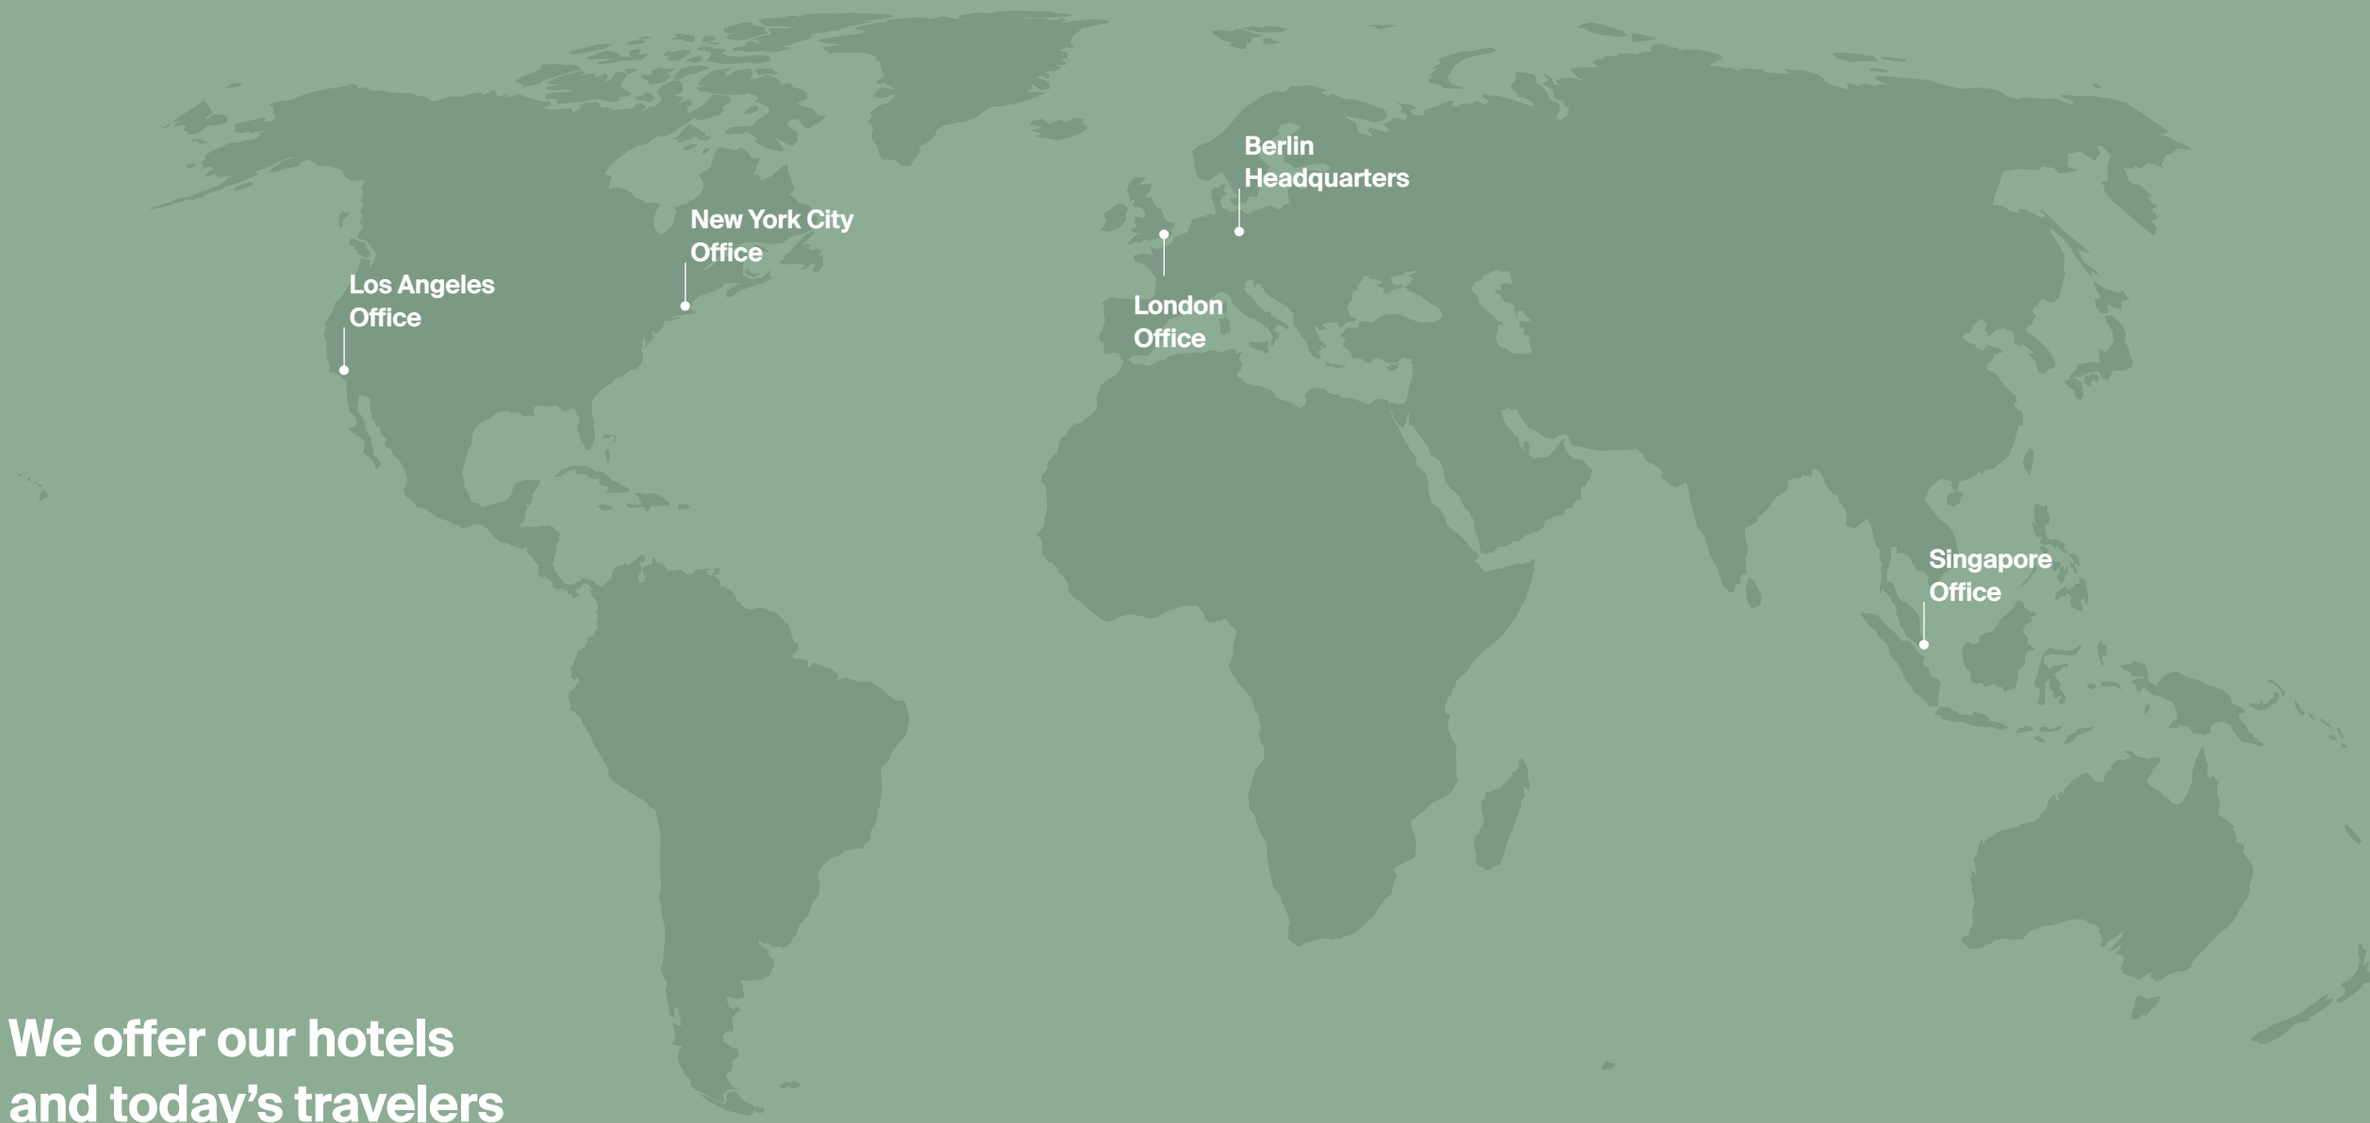
We believe, that in hospitality, great things happen when creative & passionate people, focus on their strength in creating original experiences.



We offer our hotels and today's travelers specialist knowledge and a future-forward vision that moves in step with our shifting world.

The Originals

We love to share the stories of our Originals — the people behind our hotels— the ones with the imaginative spirit that shapes exactly what we stand for.

They are the engines behind revolutionary hospitality. They shape the way we travel, they challenge the very definition of a hotel, and they inform on what's to come in the industry.

Original Experiences

In recent years, the travel sector has witnessed a dramatic shift in consciousness. Through vivid, audiovisual storytelling, Original Experiences get at the heart of what's most meaningful for today's traveler: the lived moment, a highly personal, emotional, and most of all experiential concept.

Conscious Principles

We believe that travel can be a force for good. We see our hotels as a global network of inspiring, forward-thinking spaces that make a positive impact on their surroundings, connect travelers to local communities, and enact gentler ways to move in the world. We aspire to help our Community find more meaning from their travels and pave the way towards a more conscious future.
