Explanation of the costs

a) Tuition fees for EEA-students	Hotelschool The Hague is part of a programme called 'Ruim baan voor talent' (Make way for talent), started by the Ministry of Education, Culture & Science. A number of Universities of Applied Sciences, including Hotelschool The Hague, are allowed to charge higher tuition fees on the grounds of demonstrable added value for students. Hotelschool The Hague demonstrates its added value through the following points: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- demonstrable international character;- demonstrable strong(er) personal growth;- demonstrable ability to deal with complex problems;- demonstrable favorable position in the labor market. Tuition fees for 2022-2023 are set at € 3,610 for all students except for non-EEA (European Economic Area*) students. These fees also include non-subsidisable expenses, such as expenses for an accident and liability insurance, official internal events for placement students and the graduation ceremony and the maintenance of the high-quality international network, e.g. reputable placement companies. Due to this contribution the restaurants can also offer prices that are below the market price. Payment in installments is possible for EEA-students who have their own bank account in the Netherlands.
b) Skotel, training and study hotel	The Skotel and catering practical forms an integral part of the curriculum. It is compulsory for students to stay at the Skotel (the training and study hotel) during the first year; either in Amsterdam or The Hague. The fee includes breakfast and one meal a day at school during 40 school weeks as well as access to the Internet during 45 weeks. After the first-year students are required to make their own accommodation arrangements. The deposit is reserved for repairs of damage to Skotel property caused by students. This deposit is refunded after compensation of outstanding balances or damages upon departure from the Skotel.

Please note: there are some variable additional costs:

Computer/laptop	Although the school provides excellent computer facilities, we do advise students to purchase a laptop. Each student can log on to the school computer network by using their personal username & password as assigned by the IT Department. Please make sure you have a suitable portable device and either using a normal network cable (utp patch cable) or WiFi.
Books	Books can be bought from the school's supplier. Other lesson materials consist mainly of a course guide that contains important information for each course, such as the number of EC's it provides, who the lecturers are, etc. Workbooks and manuals provide additional reading material to supplement the books. These course materials are available free of charge after your start on the school's intranet: www.myhotelschool.nl .
